

NCTA Online Film Workshop

Mar 15 - Apr 22, 2021

CHINA'S FILMS: HISTORY, CULTURE, AND SOCIETY

This five-week course will delve into the film history of modern China and will be facilitated by Dr. Yu Chen.

This workshop focuses on films directed by ZHANG Yimou (张艺谋), over a span of decades. This workshop is specifically designed to gain a wide range of perspectives of Chinese society and culture, political landscape, and artistic and cinematic aspirations. Students will learn different aspects of Chinese history and culture through film screening, discussion, and reading. Whether you teach Human Geography, Art, or Literature, there is something valuable in this workshop for everyone.

This Online workshop will be run through a Canvas Site and discussion board.

All the text books have online access. <https://libguides.ius.edu/g300/china-films>

This film workshop is open to all teachers and school staff with preferred seating going to ELA teachers, ELL teachers, Art teachers, Reading teachers, Social Studies teachers, and Librarians working with students in middle or high school.

To apply, email eascncta@indiana.edu

Registration is free! Application deadline: February 26, 2021

HAMILTON LUGAR SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
East Asian Studies Center